Chapter 1 by The Book of Stories

Her slender, thin body was decorated with the beautiful dress, which was embroidered with silver silk that gave the black dress a fashionable look.

Her face was perfectly shaped, unaged, and unstressed.

Her makeup was just in the perfect places, and her green eyes that glistened in the light.

Her blonde hair fell perfectly below her shoulders, the curls complementing with everything she wore.

The doll was perfect, except for one thing...

She was alive.

Chapter 2 by SaintSayaka

A model of an ideal human form.

A lifetime of perfection.

Alone.

None of these things were real. They were just photoshoots, they were supposed to make her feel something. Like she was a part of a larger realm. She was - in spirit,

But not in physical.

Was it possible that this wasn't her dream?
